1. Prologue

A new war begins.

Even more dreadful then the last.

Welcome to The Skywing War Of Succession.

Only very few are immune from an invisible force from taking over their minds.

The parasites.

Here are the ones who will save us from this corrouption.

A nightwing from a world parallel from ours.

A rainwing who's aim is true.

A icewing has secrets who she rather kept hidden.

A skywing who's sees the unseen.

When the first parasite happened...

CLOUD THE SKYWING POV

I saw as well as all the other skywings Queen Ruby going to say some speech about peace or somthing I don't get why we need to go to these stupid speaches. But then I saw one of her guards after her speach she was killed by one of her own guards but I saw somthing else somthing I haven't seen only when I was really young Queen Scarlet I remember the wicked face from anywhere I saw it outlining the guard like he was being possesed. Queen Scarlet was transparent like she was a ghost. She's come back for revenge. She's come to kill us all. Once the guard bit our queens neck she was dead gone. After Scarlets job was done she left the guards body. Then the guard had seen what he did he was terrified. Everyone was panicking and running away. I had to tell the other tribes about this or else every queen is going to die.

2. Chapter 1

JAYDEN THE NIGHTWING POV

I heard a whooshing sound behind me then it was gone in an instant.

I wondered huh where am I.

I turned on my side I fell of a tree branch how convenient.

I was falling and while that was happening I was screaming "AHHHHHHHHH!"

Then I hit the ground. Everything faded to black.

5 hours later...

I woke up where I fell in the soft ground of the rain forest.

"Hey your finally awake I came back every hour and now your awake after 5 hours.

Are you ok I saw you fall." The rainwing said. "AHHHHHHHHHH." I punched the rainwing.

"You know it's rude to hit a gir-" The rainwing said.

"how are my hands black and have claws?" I asked.

"Your acting strange do you need help?" The rainwing asked.

"Can you tell me one question WHY THE HELL AM I NOT HUMAN?" I yelled.

"One what is a human. Second you defiantly need help." She said.

"Tell me how your a dragon they never existed." I asked.

"What do you mean we didn't exist your one as well." She snapped.

"now tell me what is a human?"

"We stand on two legs we have to arms and most of us have hair on our heads." I replied.

"HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA YOUR KIDDING RIGHT YOU'RE A SCAVENGER."

She breathes in "we need to get you to a doctor now!" She said seriously.

"DO I LOOK LIKE IM KIDDING!" I snapped.

"Yes pretty much." She said.

"Then why did I call my self a human Instead of a scavenger?" I said with a smirk.

I could she she'd been stumped. "I-uh you could of made that word up." She said.

"Hmmm so you don't know the word human dragons exist. So the most reasonable explanation is that I'm in a world parallel from mine." I explained.

"World parallel from mine what do you mean?" She asked.

"I mean Scavengers." I talon quoted in the air. "Are the dominant species in my world and I was one."

"Fine I believe you partly I don't fully believe you. By the way my names mist" Mist said.

"Mines Jayden." I added.

"Two very important questions how do I walk with four legs and how do I fly since we're dragons and we have wings?" I asked.

"Like this Right front leg. Left hind leg and then the other way around." Mist said walking around.

"Like this owch." I fell on my self.

"once you learn how to actually walk I'll bring you to our village." Mist said.
